DESCRIPTION

This year's Institute will feature State Representative James Butler, District 41 (Oakwood), who will discuss legislative solutions that will impact sentencing and recovery for opiate-addicted offenders.

PROGRAM AGENDA

8:00 Registration

8:30 Business Associate and Covered Entity Relationships: A Match Made in Heaven?

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Office for Civil Rights has recently pursued a record number of enforcement actions implicating the covered entity/business associate relationship. Covered entities must take care in choosing and contracting with their business associates. This session will address several key areas, including breach notification, indemnification, complex uses, offshore storage and downstream business associates matters.

Jenny Corotis Barnes, Esq., MBA; Quantum Health; Columbus

Lisa Pierce Reisz, Esq.; Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP; Columbus

9:00 Medical Marijuana

Mr. Bibart will explain his role in representing patients as a member of the Ohio Medical Marijuana Advisory Committee, provide an explanation of Ohio's medical marijuana laws and updates on the rule making process, and explain the written recommendation process and requirements.

James "Ted" Bibart, Esq.; Attorney at Law; Columbus

9:30 Questions of Mental/Physical Health of Physicians and How They Are Handled by the State Medical Board of Ohio (Professional Conduct)

Ms. Collis will discuss the authority of the State Medical

Board of Ohio as it relates to a physician's physical or mental impairment. Specifically, when can the State Medical Board of Ohio order a physician to undergo a medical examination, and when can the Board limit a physician's practice or revoke a physician's license based on a mental or physical impairment? Ms. Collis will also discuss an attorney's duty when representing a physically or mentally impaired client.

Elizabeth Y. Collis, Esq., Collis Law Group LLC; Columbus

10:30 Break

10:45 Medical Marijuana

Mr. Bibart will explain his role in representing patients as a member of the Ohio Medical Marijuana Advisory Committee, provide an explanation of Ohio's medical marijuana laws and updates on the rule making process, and explain the written recommendation process and requirements.
