

The Voice of the Legal Profession

From fighting against a sales tax on legal services to advocating for increased funds for indigent defense, the OSBA is the advocate's advocate at the Statehouse, Supreme Court and the halls of Congress. Together, we actively work on the issues that impact not just the legal profession, but our society.

And as an OSBA member, you can play an active role in shaping the law by participating in our committees and section practice groups to develop policy proposals and comment on the impact of proposed legislation on the practice of law. Claim your seat at the table!
