The School of Ballet Arizona

The official school of Ballet Arizona is a place where dreams come true for both children and adults alike. Whether you wish to become a professional dancer or just to dance for the joy and physical exhilaration, we have what it takes. You will find a place of dedication and hard work. A place where you can delight in the presence of professional dancers and world renowned artists and teachers. A place where your dreams come true.

You can find a magical experience at the School of Ballet Arizona through ballet classes for students starting at the beginning levels through adult. Classes at the intermediate and advanced levels are available for the student with some training.

Students of the School of Ballet Arizona are cast before other children in the greatest holiday success of our state, Ballet Arizona's magical "The Nutcracker."

Classes:

Students will be placed within the first week of classes in a level appropriate to her or his previous experience and age. All classes will be held with an enrollment of 10 students or more. If enrollment is less, classes will be combined to best accommodate the students based on talent.
