DESCRIPTION

It is less painful to learn from others' mistakes than our own. This CLE event is presented through the lens of three highly experienced attorneys with unique perspectives in helping lawyers and law firms extricate themselves from ethical mine fields, disciplinary proceedings and ugly malpractice claims. Attendees will learn important lessons in how to maintain successful practices, while avoiding the mistakes of others and will be brought current on important ethical considerations, malpractice trends and recent amendments to the Ohio Civil and Criminal Rules and Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct. Moreover, attendees will receive practical advice on ways to take full advantage of extensive resources available to assist their day-to-day practice of law.
